

100-Day Book of Mormon Streak

From President Ethan Willis, Stake President of the Gilbert Arizona Seville Stake

We can trust in prophetic promises. President Nelson promised that we will make better decisions every day as we read the Book of Mormon—every day. He promised us protection from the world's mind-numbing addictions and answers to the specific questions in our lives.

Let us remember Naaman who wanted to be healed more than anything. He rightly sought the counsel of the prophet and was told by him to wash in the river Jordan. Naaman thought the answer was ridiculous and too simple for his complex problem. He was even offended. He was encouraged by his servant to heed the counsel of the prophet, and as he did so, he was healed (2 Kings 5:1-16).

Similarly, with President Nelson's simple, yet powerful, promise to read daily from the Book of Mormon, we too can look beyond the mark.

In a real sense, we are Naaman, and the living prophet of God is telling us how to access the safety, clarity, and healing we seek. We simply need to wholeheartedly heed the prophet's words and claim the Lord's promises.

"I say unto you, that by small and simple things are great things brought to pass (Alma 37:6)."

"My dear brothers and sisters, I promise that as you prayerfully study the Book of Mormon every day, you will make better decisions—every day. I promise that as you ponder what you study, the windows of heaven will open, and you will receive answers to your own questions and direction for your own life. I promise that as you daily immerse yourself in the Book of Mormon, you can be immunized against the evils of the day, even the gripping plague of pornography and other mind-numbing addictions."

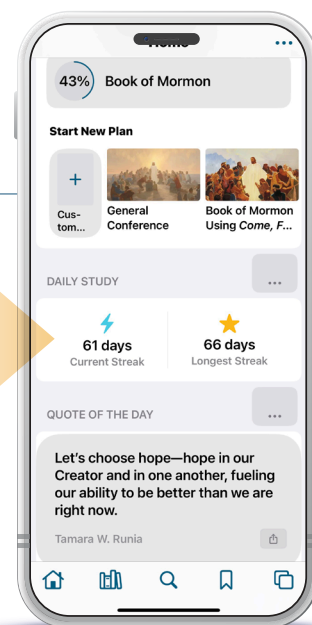

—President Russell M. Nelson

To help our stake in this effort, I would like to extend an invitation to every primary child, youth, adult and everyone younger than President Nelson—to deepen your habit of reading the Book of Mormon everyday by completing the "100-Day Book of Mormon Streak Challenge."

INVITATION

Before President Nelson's 100th birthday on September 9th, I invite you to have at least one 100-Day Streak in reading the Book of Mormon. If you read the Book of Mormon on your digital device, your streak will automatically be tallied in the LDS Library app under DAILY STUDY on the home screen. If you read from a printed copy of the Book of Mormon, you can record your streak on the chart provided.

PROMISE

As you study each day from the Book of Mormon, you will have an added measure of the Spirit, a sense of greater joy and optimism about life, and amplified power to remove the bad habits from your life. As you commit and strive to read 100 consecutive days from the Book of Mormon you will be blessed well beyond the 100 days. I pray it will become a lifelong daily habit. I leave you with my sure testimony that the Book of Mormon is another testament of Jesus Christ, a domino truth of the restored gospel and a liahona for our happiest lives.

—President Ethan Willis
